NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
June 30, 2024
(unaudited)

1. Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States (GAAP) for interim financial information and pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 are not necessarily indicative of the results expected for the full year. It is suggested the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023 filed with the SEC on February 13, 2024.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In December 2023, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) amended Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 740, Income Taxes (issued under Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2023-09, "Improvements to Income Tax Disclosures"). This ASU requires added disclosures related to the tax rate reconciliation and income taxes paid and includes other amendments intended to improve effectiveness and comparability. The amendment is effective for the Company beginning with its 2025 annual disclosures with early adoption permitted and should be applied on a prospective basis. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of ASU 2023-09 will have on its annual disclosures.

In November 2023, the FASB issued ASU 2023-07, "Segment Reporting (Topic 280) - Improvements to Reportable Segment Disclosures." The update is intended to improve reportable segment disclosure requirements, primarily through enhanced disclosures about significant expenses. The ASU requires disclosures to include significant segment expenses that are regularly provided to the chief operating decision maker (CODM), a description of other segment items by reportable segment, and any additional measures of a segment's profit or loss used by the CODM when deciding how to allocate resources. The ASU also requires all annual disclosures currently required by Topic 280 to be included in interim periods. The update is effective for the Company beginning with its 2024 annual disclosures and interim periods beginning in 2025, with early adoption permitted and requires retrospective application to all prior periods presented in the financial statements. The Company is currently evaluating the impact the adoption of ASU 2023-07 will have on its annual and interim disclosures.

2. Revenue Recognition

Substantially all of the Company's sales are from contracts with customers for the purchase of its products. Contracts and customer purchase orders are used to determine the existence of a sales contract. Shipping documents are used to verify shipment. For substantially all of its products, the Company transfers control of products to the customer at the point in time when title and risk are passed to the customer, which generally occurs upon shipment of the product. Each unit sold is considered an independent, unbundled performance obligation. The Company's sales arrangements do not include other performance obligations that are material in the context of the contract.

The nature, timing and amount of revenue for a respective performance obligation are consistent for each customer. The Company measures the sales transaction price based upon the payment terms associated with the transaction and whether the sales price is subject to refund or adjustment. Sales and value added taxes are excluded from the measurement of the transaction price. The Company's payment terms for the majority of its customers are 30 to 90 days from shipment.

Additionally, certain customers in China pay the Company prior to the shipment of products resulting in a customer deposits liability of $47.6 million and $59.7 million at June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively. Customer deposit liabilities are short term in nature, recognized into revenue within one year of receipt. The Company assesses the collectability of customer receivables based on the creditworthiness of a customer as determined by credit checks and analysis, as well as the customer's payment history. In determining the allowance for credit losses, the Company also considers various factors including the aging of customer accounts and historical write-offs. In addition, the Company monitors other risk factors including forward-looking information when establishing adequate allowances for credit losses, which reflects the current estimate of credit losses expected to be incurred over the life of the receivables. The Company's allowance for credit losses was $12.9 million and $10.1 million at June 30, 2024 and December 31, 2023, respectively.

2. Revenue Recognition (continued)

Rebates and incentives are based on pricing agreements and are tied to sales volume. The amount of revenue is reduced for variable consideration related to customer rebates which are calculated using expected values and are based on program specific factors such as expected rebate percentages based on expected volumes. In situations where the customer has the right to return eligible products, the Company reduces revenue for its estimates of expected product returns, which are primarily based on an analysis of historical experience. Changes in such accruals may be required if actual sales volume differs from estimated sales volume or if future returns differ from historical experience. Shipping and handling costs billed to customers are included in net sales and the related costs are included in cost of products sold and are activities performed to fulfill the promise to transfer products.

Disaggregation of Net Sales

The Company is comprised of two reporting segments: North America and Rest of World. The Rest of World segment is primarily comprised of China, Europe and India. Both segments manufacture and market comprehensive lines of residential and commercial gas, heat pump and electric water heaters, boilers, tanks and water treatment products. Both segments primarily manufacture and market in their respective regions of the world.

As each segment manufactures and markets products in its respective region of the world, the Company has determined that geography is the primary factor in reporting its sales. The Company further disaggregates its North America segment sales by major product line as each of North America's major product lines is sold through distinct distribution channels and these product lines may be impacted differently by certain economic factors. Within the Rest of World segment, particularly in China and India, the Company's major customers purchase across the Company's product lines, utilizing the same distribution channels regardless of product type. In addition, the impact of economic factors is unlikely to be differentiated by product line in the Rest of World segment.

Water heaters The Company's water heaters are open water heating systems that heat potable water. Typical applications for water heaters include residences, restaurants, hotels, office buildings, laundries, car washes and small businesses. The Company sells residential and commercial water heater products and related parts through its wholesale distribution channel, which includes more than 900 independent wholesale plumbing distributors. The Company also sells residential water heaters and related parts through retail and maintenance, repair and operations (MRO) channels. A significant portion of the Company's water heater sales in the North America segment is derived from the replacement of existing products.

Boilers The Company's boilers are closed loop water heating systems used primarily for space heating or hydronic heating. The Company's boilers are primarily used in applications in commercial settings for hospitals, schools, hotels and other large commercial buildings while residential boilers are used in homes, apartments and condominiums. The Company's boiler distribution channel is comprised primarily of manufacturer representative firms, with the remainder of its boilers distributed through wholesale channels. The Company's boiler sales in the North America segment are derived from a combination of replacement of existing products and new construction.

Water treatment products The Company's water treatment products range from point-of-entry water softeners, solutions for problem well water, and whole-home water filtration products to on-the-go filtration bottles, point-of-use carbon, and reverse osmosis products. Typical applications for the Company's water treatment products include residences, restaurants, hotels and offices. The Company sells water treatment products through its retail and wholesale distribution channels, similar to water heaters. The Company's water treatment products are also sold through independent water quality dealers as well as directly to consumers including through e-commerce sales channels. A portion of the Company's sales of water treatment products in the North America segment is comprised of replacement filters.

The following table disaggregates the Company's net sales by segment. As described above, the Company's North America segment sales are further disaggregated by major product line. In addition, the Company's Rest of World segment sales are disaggregated by China and all other Rest of World:

(dollars in millions)	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,

Total Net Sales	$ 1,024.3	$ 960.8	$ 2,003.1	$ 1,927.2

3. Acquisition and Dispositions*Acquisition*

During the first quarter of 2024, the Company acquired a privately held water treatment company. The Company paid an aggregate cash purchase price of $21.3 million, net of cash acquired. The Company also agreed to make contingent payments based on the amount by which sales of products increase over the next three years. The addition of the acquired company expands the Company's water treatment footprint in North America. The acquired company is included in the North America segment.

As required under ASC 805 Business Combinations, results of operations have been included in the Company's consolidated financial statements from the date of acquisition.

Dispositions

During the second quarter of 2024, the Company continued the process of exiting its operations in Vietnam. The restructuring expense associated with the exit was recorded in the fourth quarter of 2023 and did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated financial statements.

During the second quarter of 2023, the Company sold its business in Turkey (disposal group), which was included in the Company's Rest of World segment, for an amount that approximated the carrying value of the net assets. In the first quarter of 2023, the Company determined that the disposal group met the criteria to be classified as held for sale and that the fair value of the disposal group, less cost to sell, was lower than its carrying amount. As a result, in the first quarter of 2023, the Company recorded an impairment expense of $15.6 million, of which $12.5 million was recorded in the Rest of World segment, and $3.1 million was recorded in Corporate Expense. The impairment was recorded as a net reduction of $4.5 million to the assets and liabilities and $11.1 million for the anticipated liquidation of the cumulative foreign currency translation adjustment associated with the disposal group.

4. Inventories

The following table presents the components of the Company's inventory balances:

(dollars in millions)	June 30, 2024	December 31, 2023
Finished products	$ 215.1	$ 177.7

5. Product Warranties

The Company offers warranties on the sales of certain of its products with terms that are consistent with the market and records an accrual for the estimated future claims. The following table presents the Company's warranty liability activity:

(dollars in millions)	Three Months Ended June 30,

6. Debt

In 2021, the Company renewed and amended its $500 million multi-year multi-currency revolving credit agreement with a new expiration date of April 1, 2026. The facility has an accordion provision that allows it to be increased up to $850 million if certain conditions (including lender approval) are satisfied. Borrowings under the Company's bank credit lines and commercial paper borrowings are supported by a $500 million revolving credit agreement. As a result of the long-term nature of this facility, the Company's commercial paper and credit line borrowings are classified as long-term debt at June 30, 2024. At its option, the Company either maintains cash balances or pays fees for bank credit and services. The facility requires the Company to maintain two financial covenants, a leverage ratio test and an interest coverage test. The Company was in compliance with the covenants as of June 30, 2024.

7. Earnings per Share of Common Stock

The numerator for the calculation of basic and diluted earnings per share is net earnings. The following table sets forth the computation of basic and diluted weighted-average shares used in the earnings per share calculations:

The Incentive Plan is a continuation of the A. O. Smith Combined Executive Incentive Compensation Plan which was originally approved by stockholders in 2002. The number of shares available for granting of share units at June 30, 2024 was 2,288,859. Upon stock option exercise or share unit vesting, shares are issued from treasury stock. 11. Fair Value Measurements

Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 820, Fair Value Measurements, among other things, defines fair value, establishes a consistent framework for measuring fair value and expands disclosure for each major asset and liability category measured at fair value on either a recurring basis or nonrecurring basis. ASC 820 clarifies that fair value is an exit price, representing the amount that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants. As such, fair value is a market-based measurement that should be determined based on assumptions that market participants would use in pricing an asset or liability. As a basis for considering such assumptions, ASC 820 establishes a three-tier fair value hierarchy, which prioritizes the inputs used in measuring fair value as follows: (Level 1) observable inputs such as quoted prices in active markets; (Level 2) inputs, other than the quoted prices in active markets, that are observable either directly or indirectly; and (Level 3) unobservable inputs in which there is little or no market data, which require the reporting entity to develop its own assumptions. Assets and liabilities measured at fair value are based on the market approach which are prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable assets or liabilities.

Assets (liabilities) measured at fair value on a recurring basis are as follows (dollars in millions):

Fair Value Measurement Using	Balance Sheet Location	June 30, 2024	December 31, 2023
Quoted prices in active markets for identical assets (Level 1)	Marketable Securities	$ 17.2	$ 23.5
Significant other observable inputs (Level 2)	Other current assets / (Accrued liabilities)	3.2	(4.1)

Items measured at fair value were comprised of the Company's marketable securities (Level 1) and derivative instruments (Level 2). There were no changes in the Company's valuation techniques used to measure fair values on a recurring basis during the six months ended June 30, 2024.

12. Derivative Instruments

The Company utilizes certain derivative instruments to enhance its ability to manage currency exposure as well as raw materials price risk. Derivative instruments are entered into for periods consistent with the related underlying exposures and do not constitute positions independent of those exposures. The Company does not enter into contracts for speculative purposes. The contracts are executed with major financial institutions with no credit loss anticipated for failure of the counterparties to perform.

Cash Flow Hedges

With the exception of its net investment hedges, the Company designates all of its hedging instruments as cash flow hedges. For derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as a cash flow hedge (i.e., hedging the exposure to variability in expected future cash flows that is attributable to a particular risk), gains or losses on the derivative instrument are reported as a component of other comprehensive loss, net of tax, and are reclassified into earnings in the same line item associated with the forecasted transaction and in the same period or periods during which the hedged transaction affects earnings.

Foreign Currency Forward Contracts

The Company is exposed to foreign currency exchange risk as a result of transactions in currencies other than the functional currency of certain subsidiaries. The Company utilizes foreign currency forward purchase and sale contracts to manage the volatility associated with foreign currency purchases, sales and certain intercompany transactions in the normal course of business. Principal currencies for which the Company utilizes foreign currency forward contracts from time to time include the British pound, Canadian dollar, Euro and Mexican peso.

Gains and losses on these instruments are recorded in accumulated other comprehensive loss, net of tax, until the underlying transaction is recorded in earnings. When the hedged item is realized, gains or losses are reclassified from accumulated other comprehensive loss to the consolidated statement of earnings. The assessment of effectiveness for forward contracts is based on changes in the forward rates. These hedges have been determined to be effective. The majority of the amounts in accumulated other comprehensive loss for cash flow hedges are expected to be reclassified into earnings within one year.

The majority of the amounts in accumulated other comprehensive loss for cash flow hedges are expected to be reclassified into earnings within one year. The combined fair value of the foreign currency forward contracts was an asset balance of $0.1 million as of June 30, 2024 which was recorded in Other current assets within the consolidated balance sheet. The combined fair value of the foreign currency forward contracts was an asset balance of $0.9 million as of December 31, 2023 which was recorded in Other current assets within the consolidated balance sheet.

12. Derivative Instruments (continued)

The following table summarizes, by currency, the contractual amounts of the Company's foreign currency forward contracts as of the dates indicated that were designated as cash flow hedges:

	Buy	Sell	Buy	Sell
Canadian dollar	$ —	$ 40.1	$ —	$ 80.5

Mexican peso	26.6	—	14.2	—
Total	$ 52.7	$ 40.1	$ 38.3	$ 80.5

Net Investment Hedges

The Company enters into certain foreign currency forward contracts to hedge the exposure to a portion of the Company's net investments in certain non-U.S. subsidiaries against the effect of exchange rate fluctuations on the translation of foreign currency balances to the U.S. dollar. For the derivative instruments that are designated and qualify as net investment hedges, gains and losses are reported in other comprehensive loss where they offset gains and losses recorded on the Company's net investments in its non-U.S. subsidiaries. These hedges are determined to be effective. The Company recognized $1.4 million and $0.8 million of after-tax gains associated with hedges of net investments in non-U.S. subsidiaries in currency translation adjustment in other comprehensive loss in the three months ended June 30, 2024 and June 30, 2023, respectively. The Company recognized $5.4 million and $(1.3) million of after-tax gains (losses) associated with hedges of net investments in non-U.S. subsidiaries in currency translation adjustment in other comprehensive loss in the six months ended June 30, 2024 and June 30, 2023, respectively. The contractual amount of the Company's foreign currency forward contracts that are designated as net investment hedges was $204.0 million as of June 30, 2024. The combined fair value of the net investment hedges was an asset balance of $2.9 million as of June 30, 2024 which was recorded in Other current assets within the consolidated balance sheet. The combined fair value of the net investment hedges was a liability balance of $(4.2) million as of December 31, 2023 which was recorded in Accrued liabilities within the consolidated balance sheet.

Balance Sheet Hedges

Foreign Exchange Contracts

The Company periodically enters into foreign exchange contracts to mitigate the foreign currency volatility relative to certain intercompany loans. These foreign exchange contracts did not qualify for hedge accounting in accordance with ASC 815 and as such were marked to market through earnings. The fair value of the foreign exchange contracts was an asset balance of $0.2 million as of June 30, 2024 which was recorded in Other current assets within the consolidated balance sheet. 13. Income Taxes

The Company's effective income tax rate for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 was 24.4 percent and 23.9 percent, respectively. The Company estimates that its annual effective income tax rate for the full year 2024 will be approximately 24 percent. The effective income tax rate for the three and six months ended June 30, 2023 was 24.8 percent and 25.3 percent, respectively. The change in the effective income tax rate for the three months ended June 30, 2024 compared to the effective income tax rate for the three months ended June 30, 2023 was primarily due to geographical earnings mix. The change in the effective income tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2024 compared to the effective income tax rate for the six months ended June 30, 2023 was primarily due to geographical earnings mix and a $15.6 million impairment expense recorded in the prior year period with no associated tax benefit. Refer to Note 3 - Acquisition and Dispositions for additional information regarding the impairment expense.

As of June 30, 2024, the Company had $17.2 million of unrecognized tax benefits of which $3.5 million would affect its effective income tax rate if recognized. The Company recognizes potential interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense. The Company's U.S. federal income tax returns and its U.S. state and local income tax returns are subject to audit for the years 2017-2024 and 2007-2024, respectively. The Company is subject to examinations in foreign tax jurisdictions for the years 2018-2024.

14. Commitments and Contingencies

The Company maintains a commercial relationship with a supply-chain service provider (the Provider) in connection with the Company's business in China. In this capacity, the Provider offers order-entry, warehousing and logistics support. The Provider also offers asset-backed financing to certain of the Company's distributors in China to facilitate their working capital needs. To facilitate its financing support business, the Provider has collateralized lending facilities in place with multiple Chinese banks under which the Company has agreed to repurchase inventory if both requested by the banks and certain defined conditions are met, primarily related to the aging of the distributors' notes.

The Provider is required to indemnify the Company for any losses the Company would incur in the event of an inventory repurchase under these arrangements. Potential losses under the repurchase arrangements represent the difference between the repurchase price and net proceeds from the resale of the product plus costs incurred in the process, less related distributor

16. Subsequent Event

On July 15, 2024, the Company signed an agreement to acquire Pureit, a residential water purification business in South Asia, from Unilever for approximately $120 million, subject to customary adjustments. The Company expects to complete the acquisition of Pureit by the end of 2024 and does not expect the acquisition to have a material impact on earnings in the first year.

ITEM 2 - MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Overview

Our company is comprised of two reporting segments: North America and Rest of World. Our Rest of World segment is primarily comprised of China, Europe and India. Both segments manufacture and market comprehensive lines of residential and commercial gas, heat pump and electric water heaters, boilers, tanks, and water treatment products. Both segments primarily manufacture and market in their respective region of the world.

Our supply chain has been relatively stable. However, we continue to monitor potential disruptions and increase our safety stock of key components when we believe it is warranted. We remain in close contact with our suppliers and logistics providers to resolve supply chain constraints as they arise.

We continue to seek acquisitions that enable geographic growth, expand our core business, and establish adjacencies. On July 15, 2024, we signed an agreement to acquire Pureit from Unilever for $120 million, subject to customary adjustments. Pureit, a leading water purification business in South Asia, offers a broad range of residential water purification solutions and has annual sales of approximately USD $60 million, primarily in India. The acquisition fits squarely in the Company's core capabilities and doubles the Company's market penetration in the South Asia region. In the first quarter of 2024, we acquired Impact Water Products, a California-based water treatment company. The acquisition supports our growth strategy by expanding the West Coast presence of our water treatment business.

Also, we continue to look for opportunities to add to our existing product portfolio in high growth regions demonstrated by our previous introductions of kitchen products in China. We also recently introduced our internally designed and manufactured gas tankless water heaters in North America. In addition, we are expanding our commercial water heater capacity in preparation for the new efficiency rule for commercial water heaters that the Department of Energy (DOE) has adopted that will take effect in 2026.

In our North America segment, we saw strong water heater demand through June. We believe that a prebuy ahead of our March 1st price increase pulled forward some demand into the first half of the year and we have seen some softness in orders in July. We project 2024 industry residential unit volumes will be flat after approximately six percent growth in 2023. Proactive replacement has been above historical levels for the last several years and we project that will continue in 2024. We believe that new home construction remains in a deficit and will be flat compared to 2023. We anticipate that commercial water heater industry volumes will grow low single digits in 2024 compared to 2023 as demand for commercial electric water heaters greater than 55 gallon continues a positive trend toward pre-2022 levels. Sales of our boilers and water treatment products were negatively impacted by elevated channel inventories in 2023. We believe that channel inventories returned to near normal levels at the beginning of 2024 for both product categories and we saw a return to growth in the second quarter. We expect to see an eight to ten percent increase in our sales of boilers in 2024 compared to 2023 as we continue to benefit from the transition to higher efficiency boilers. We anticipate sales of our North America water treatment products will increase approximately eight to ten percent in 2024, compared to 2023, as we continue our geographic expansion.

In our Rest of World segment, we saw local currency third-party sales growth in China of four percent in the first half of 2024, however due to continued economic headwinds, we remain cautious about the second half of the year. We project our third-party sales in China will be flat to up three percent in 2024 in local currency compared to 2023 driven by innovative new products and resilient demand for our core products. Our guidance assumes an unfavorable currency translation impact on sales of approximately two percent in 2024.

Combining all of these factors, we expect our 2024 consolidated sales to increase between three and five percent compared to 2023. Our guidance excludes the impacts from potential future acquisitions.

Our sales in the second quarter of 2024 were $1,024.3 million, or seven percent higher than the second quarter 2023 sales of $960.8 million. Sales in the first six months of 2024 were $2,003.1 million, or approximately four percent higher than $1,927.2 million in the same period last year. Compared to the prior year quarter, the increased sales were primarily driven by higher volumes of residential and commercial water heaters and pricing actions in North America partially offset by approximately $8 million due to the depreciation of foreign currencies compared to the U.S. dollar. In the first six months of 2024, our sales increased due to higher volumes of residential and commercial water heaters and pricing actions in North America and higher sales in China, partially offset by unfavorable foreign currency translations of approximately $17 million.

Our gross profit margin in the second quarter of 2024 was 38.7 percent and decreased compared to 40.0 percent in the second quarter of 2023. Gross profit margin in the first six months of 2024 was 39.0 percent compared to the gross profit margin of 39.4 percent in the first six months of 2023. The lower gross profit margin in the second quarter and first six months of 2024 compared to the same period last year was primarily due to higher material costs.

Selling, general, and administrative (SG&A) expenses in the second quarter of 2024 increased by $8.2 million compared to the second quarter of 2023. SG&A expenses increased $13.2 million in the first six months of 2024 compared to the prior year. The increase in SG&A expenses in the second quarter and first six months of 2024 compared to the prior year periods was primarily due to higher employee costs from increased wages and management incentives in addition to higher selling expenses to support our sales growth initiatives.

Impairment expense in the first six months of 2023 was $15.6 million related to the sale of our business in Turkey. Of the $15.6 million impairment, $12.5 million was recorded in the Rest of World segment and $3.1 million in Corporate Expense. There was no impairment expense recorded in the second quarter of 2024 or the first six months of 2024.

Interest expense in the second quarter of 2024 was $1.8 million compared to $4.5 million in the same period last year. Interest expense in the first six months of 2024 was $2.8 million compared to $8.5 million in the same period the previous year. The decrease in interest expense in the second quarter and first six months of 2024 compared to the same period last year was primarily due to lower average debt levels.

Other income, net was $0.9 million in the second quarter of 2024 compared to $9.0 million in the second quarter of 2023. Other income, net was $2.1 million in the first six months of 2024 compared to $13.0 million in the same period last year. The decrease in Other income, net was primarily due to the absence of non-recurring pension settlement income of $6.0 million realized in the second quarter of 2023, higher foreign currency translation losses and lower interest income.

Our effective income tax rate for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 was 24.4 percent and 23.9 percent, respectively. The effective income tax rate for the three and six months ended June 30, 2023 was 24.8 percent and 25.3 percent, respectively. The change in the effective income tax rate for the three and six months ended June 30, 2024 compared to the effective income tax rate for the three and six months ended June 30, 2023 was primarily due to a change in geographical earnings mix and the $15.6 million impairment expense recorded in the prior year period with no associated tax benefit. We estimate that our annual effective income tax rate for the full year of 2024 will be approximately 24 percent.

We are providing non-U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) measures (adjusted earnings, adjusted EPS, total segment earnings, adjusted segment earnings, and adjusted corporate expense) that exclude the impact of the 2023 impairment expense and pension settlement income. Reconciliations from GAAP measures to non-GAAP measures are provided in the Non-GAAP Measures section below. We believe that the measures of adjusted earnings, adjusted EPS, total segment earnings, adjusted segment earnings, and adjusted corporate expense provide useful information to investors about our performance and allow management and our investors to better understand our performance between periods without regard to items that we do not consider to be a component of our core operating performance.

North America Segment

(dollars in millions)	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2024	2023	2024	2023
Net Sales	$ 790.7	$ 722.3	$ 1,557.0	$ 1,475.0
Segment Earnings	198.4	199.1	397.1	387.7
Segment margin	25.1 %	27.6 %	25.5 %	26.3 %

Sales in our North America segment were $790.7 million in the second quarter of 2024, or $68.4 million higher than sales of $722.3 million in the second quarter of 2023. Sales in the first six months of 2024 were $1,557.0 million, or $82.0 million higher than sales of $1,475.0 million in the same period last year. Higher residential and commercial water heater and commercial boiler volumes and pricing actions primarily drove higher sales in the second quarter of 2024 and first six months of 2024 compared to the prior year periods.

North America segment earnings were $198.4 million in the second quarter of 2024 and lower than segment earnings of $199.1 million in the second quarter of 2023. Segment earnings in the first six months of 2024 were $397.1 million, an increase of $9.4 million compared to segment earnings of $387.7 million in the first six months of 2023. Segment margins were 25.1 percent and 27.6 percent in the second quarter of 2024 and 2023, respectively. Segment margins were 25.5 percent and 26.3 percent in the first six months of 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Lower segment earnings and margins in the second quarter of 2024 compared to the prior year were primarily due to higher material costs, mainly steel, higher selling expenses to support our sales growth initiatives and the absence of non-recurring pension settlement income of $5.0 million, partially offset by higher residential and commercial water heater and commercial boiler volumes and pricing actions. Higher segment earnings and margins in the first six months of 2024 compared to the prior year period were primarily due to higher volumes of residential and commercial water heaters and pricing actions partially offset by higher selling expenses to support our sales growth initiatives. We estimate our 2024 North America segment margin will be approximately 25 percent.

Adjusted segment earnings and adjusted segment margin in the second quarter of 2023 were $194.1 million and 26.9 percent, respectively. Adjusted segment earnings and adjusted segment margin in the first six months of 2023 were $382.7 million and 25.9 percent, respectively. Adjusted segment earnings and adjusted segment margin in the second quarter and first six months of 2023 exclude $5.0 million of pension settlement income.

Rest of World Segment

(dollars in millions)	Three Months Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2024	2023	2024	2023
Net Sales	$ 244.8	$ 244.2	$ 471.7	$ 463.3
Segment Earnings	25.9	28.3	43.1	33.6
Segment margin	10.6 %	11.6 %	9.1 %	7.3 %

Sales in the Rest of World segment were $244.8 million in the second quarter of 2024 and slightly higher than sales of $244.2 million in the second quarter of 2023. Sales in the first six months of 2024 were $471.7 million, or $8.4 million higher than sales of $463.3 million in the same period last year. Compared to the prior year periods, sales in the second quarter and first six months of 2024 were higher due to increased volumes of kitchen products and combi boilers in China and included increased inter-segment sales of approximately $2 million and $10 million, respectively, related to our recently introduced tankless water heaters manufactured in China and shipped to the U.S. market. Higher sales in the second quarter and first six months of 2024 were partially offset by lower sales of residential water treatment products in China and unfavorable foreign currency translations of approximately $7 million and $16 million, respectively.

Rest of World segment earnings were $25.9 million in the second quarter of 2024, compared to $28.3 million in the second quarter of 2023. Segment earnings in the first six months of 2024 were $43.1 million, compared to $33.6 million in the first six months of 2023. Segment margins were 10.6 percent and 11.6 percent in the second quarter of 2024 and 2023, respectively. Segment margins were 9.1 percent and 7.3 percent in the first six months of 2024 and 2023, respectively.

Lower segment earnings and segment margin in the second quarter of 2024 were primarily driven by unfavorable product mix and sales promotions in China.

Higher segment earnings and segment margin in the first six months of 2024 were primarily driven by the absence of the nonrecurring impairment expense of $12.5 million associated with the sale of our business in Turkey recorded in the first quarter of 2023, partially offset by an unfavorable product mix and sales promotions in China in the second quarter and the first half of 2024. We estimate our 2024 Rest of World segment margin will be approximately ten percent.

Adjusted segment earnings and adjusted segment margin in the first six months of 2023 were $46.1 million and 10.0 percent, respectively. Adjusted segment earnings and adjusted segment margin in the first six months of 2023 exclude the $12.5 million of impairment expense.

Outlook

We expect our consolidated sales to increase in 2024 between three and five percent. Our sales projection is driven by expected continued end-market demand in water heating and the rebound that we expect in boiler and water treatment volumes after 2023 corrections in end-market inventories in North America. In our Rest of the World segment, we expect sales to be flat to up three percent in 2024 in local currency compared to 2023 driven by innovative new products and resilient demand for our core products. We expect to achieve full-year earnings of between $3.95 and $4.10 per share. Our guidance excludes the impacts from potential future acquisitions.

Liquidity & Capital Resources

Our working capital was $608.9 million at June 30, 2024, compared with $555.0 million at December 31, 2023. The increase in working capital was primarily related to higher receivable and inventory balances, lower accounts payable and lower payroll-related accruals partially offset by lower cash balances. As of June 30, 2024, cash balances were negatively impacted by $4.0 million due to changes in foreign currency during the year. Cash and cash equivalents used to fund our operations are primarily generated through operating activities and our existing credit facilities. We believe our available cash and existing credit facilities are sufficient to cover our cash needs for the foreseeable future. We use a global cash pooling arrangement, intercompany borrowing, and some local credit lines to meet funding needs and allocate capital resources among various entities. We have historically made and anticipate future cash repatriations from certain foreign subsidiaries. In the first six months of 2024, we repatriated approximately $88 million of cash from our foreign subsidiaries and used the proceeds to pay down outstanding debt balances and fund an acquisition.

(dollars in millions)

	Six Months Ended June 30,
	2024	2023
Cash provided by operating activities	$ 164.0	$ 260.2
Cash (used in) provided by investing activities	(60.1)	33.8
Cash used in financing activities	(223.7)	(291.2)

Cash provided by operations decreased from $260.2 million in the first six months of 2023 compared to $164.0 million in the in the first six months of 2024, primarily as a result of higher inventory and accounts receivable balances, higher incentive payments associated with record sales and profits earned in 2023 which more than offset higher earnings and lower trade accounts payable balances. Our free cash flow in the second quarter of 2024 and 2023 was $119.1 million and $236.0 million, respectively. We expect cash provided by operating activities to be between $640 million and $690 million in 2024. We expect free cash flow to be between $525 million and $575 million in 2024. Free cash flow is a non-GAAP measure described in more detail in the Non-GAAP Measures section below.

Capital expenditures totaled $44.9 million in the six months of 2024 compared with $24.2 million in the same period last year. We project 2024 capital expenditures will be between $105 million and $115 million and full-year depreciation and amortization expense will be approximately $80 million.

We have a $500 million revolving credit facility which expires on April 1, 2026. The facility is with a group of nine banks and has an accordion provision that allows it to be increased up to $850 million if certain conditions (including lender approval) are satisfied. Borrowing rates under the facility are determined by our leverage ratio. The facility requires us to maintain two financial covenants, a leverage ratio test and an interest coverage test, and we were in compliance with the covenants as of June 30, 2024, and expect to be in compliance for the foreseeable future. The facility backs up commercial paper and credit line borrowings. At June 30, 2024, we had $21.2 million of borrowings outstanding under the facility and an available borrowing capacity of $478.8 million. We believe the combination of available borrowing capacity and operating cash flows will provide sufficient funds to finance our existing operations for the foreseeable future.

Our total debt increased by $13.1 million in the first six months of 2024 primarily due to the repurchase of our common stock. Our leverage, as measured by the ratio of total debt to total capitalization, was 6.8 percent at June 30, 2024, compared with 6.5 percent at December 31, 2023.

In the first quarter of 2024, our Board of Directors approved adding 2,000,000 shares of common stock to our existing discretionary share repurchase authority. Under our share repurchase program, we may purchase our common stock through a combination of a Rule 10b5-1 automatic trading plan and discretionary purchases in accordance with applicable securities laws. The stock repurchase authorization remains effective until terminated by our Board of Directors, which may occur at any time, subject to the parameters of any Rule 10b5-1 automatic trading plan that we may then have in effect. During the first six months of 2024, we repurchased 1,834,000 shares of our stock at a total cost of $153.2 million. At June 30, 2024, we had 3,667,462 shares remaining on the share repurchase authority. Depending on factors such as stock price, working capital requirements, and alternative investment opportunities, we expect to spend approximately $300 million on stock repurchases in 2024 through a combination of any renewed Rule 10b5-1 automatic trading plan and open market repurchases.

On July 8, 2024, our Board of Directors declared a regular quarterly cash dividend of $0.32 per share on our Common Stock and Class A common stock. The dividend is payable on August 15, 2024, to shareholders of record on July 31, 2024.

Non-GAAP Financial Information

We provide non-GAAP measures of free cash flow, adjusted earnings, adjusted EPS, total segment earnings, adjusted segment earnings, and adjusted corporate expense. We define free cash flow as cash provided by operating activities less capital expenditures. Our adjusted earnings, adjusted EPS, adjusted segment earnings, and adjusted corporate expenses exclude the impact of the 2023 impairment expense and pension settlement income.

We believe that free cash flow provides useful additional information concerning cash flow available to meet future debt service obligations and working capital requirements. We believe that the measure of adjusted earnings, adjusted EPS, adjusted segment earnings and adjusted corporate expense provides useful information to investors about our performance and allows management and our investors to better understand our performance between periods without regard to items we do not consider to be a component of our core operating performance.

Critical Accounting Policies

Our consolidated financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the U.S., which requires the use of estimates and assumptions about future events that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Future events and their effects cannot be determined with absolute certainty. Therefore, the determination of estimates requires the exercise of judgment. Actual results inevitably will differ from those estimates, and such differences may be material to the financial statements. The critical accounting policies that we believe could have the most significant effect on our reported results or require complex judgment by management are contained in Item 7, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, of our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023. We believe that at June 30, 2024, there was no material change to this information.

Forward-looking statements generally can be identified by the use of words such as "may," "will," "expect," "intend," "estimate," "anticipate," "believe," "forecast," "continue," "guidance," "outlook" or words of similar meaning. All forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated as of the date of this filing. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from these expectations include, among other things, the following: softening in U.S. residential water heater demand; negative impacts to the Company, particularly the demand for its products, resulting from global inflationary pressures or a potential recession in one or more of the markets in which the Company participates; the Company's ability to continue to obtain commodities, components, parts and accessories on a timely basis through its supply chain and at expected costs; negative impacts to demand for the Company's products, particularly commercial products, as a result of changes in commercial property usage that followed the COVID-19 pandemic; further weakening in U.S. residential or commercial construction or instability in the Company's replacement markets; inability of the Company to implement or maintain pricing actions; inconsistent recovery of the Chinese economy or a further decline in the growth rate of consumer spending or housing sales in China; negative impact to the Company's businesses from international tariffs, trade disputes and geopolitical differences, including the conflicts in Ukraine, the Middle East and attacks on commercial shipping vessels in the Red Sea; potential further weakening in the high-efficiency gas boiler segment in the U.S.; substantial defaults in payment by, material reduction in purchases by or the loss, bankruptcy or insolvency of a major customer; foreign currency fluctuations; the Company's inability to successfully integrate or achieve its strategic objectives resulting from acquisitions; the possibility that the parties will fail to obtain necessary regulatory approvals or to satisfy any of the other conditions to the proposed acquisition; failure to realize the expected benefits of acquisitions or expected synergies; competitive pressures on the Company's businesses; including new technologies and new competitors; the impact of potential information technology or data security breaches; changes in government regulations or regulatory requirements; the inability to respond to secular trends toward decarbonization and energy efficiency and adverse developments in general economic, political and business conditions in key regions of the world. Our quantitative and qualitative disclosures about market risk have not materially changed since that report was filed. We monitor our currency and commodity risks on a continuous basis and generally enter into forward and futures contracts to minimize these exposures. The majority of the contracts are for periods of less than one year. Our Company does not engage in speculation in our derivative strategies. It is important to note that gains and losses from our forward and futures contract activities are offset by changes in the underlying costs of the transactions being hedged.

ITEM 4 - CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures

Under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including our principal executive officer and principal financial officer, we conducted an evaluation of our disclosure controls and procedures, as such term is defined under Rule 13a-15(e) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (Exchange Act). ITEM 2 - UNREGISTERED SALES OF EQUITY SECURITIES, USE OF PROCEEDS, AND ISSUER PURCHASES OF EQUITY SECURITIES

In the first quarter of 2024, our Board of Directors approved adding 2,000,000 shares of common stock to the existing discretionary share repurchase authority. Under the share repurchase program, the Common Stock may be purchased through a combination of Rule 10b5-1 automatic trading plan and discretionary purchases in accordance with applicable securities laws. The stock repurchase authorization remains effective until terminated by our Board of Directors which may occur at any time, subject to the parameters of any Rule 10b5-1 automatic trading plan that we may then have in effect. In the second quarter of 2024, we repurchased 928,000 shares at an average price of $84.77 per share and at a total cost of $78.7 million.
